

AGREEMENT

Taking part in ICO of Orinoco Dezentralized Fund, you realize that:

- the purse with which you send ETH must be not a stock exchange, but your personal (you must have a private key of it)
- the minimum amount of investment is 1 ETH (when sending less the transaction amount will not pass, but the network commission will be paid)
- Venezuela, where the Foundation is planning to conduct business, is experiencing a systemic crisis and the opportunities correspond to the existing risks of crisis areas
- The fund takes on only the market risks (and guarantees targeted spending of funds, which will be reflected in the form of quarterly reports, including information on the conjuncture of the Venezuelan real estate market, transactions produced by the Fund during the reporting period and the results obtained)
- The Fund develops operations with Venezuelan real estate, which implies a long horizon of investment, and thus the Fund can not guarantee fast profits
- return of investments made to the Fund is possible only in the form of dividends (to the Co-founder's token, CTFO-token) and the repurchase of the Investor's tokens (ITFO) from the exchange sites in accordance with the White Paper of the Fund
- Invest should only those funds that you can afford to take risks

Sending of funds for the purchase of the Fund's tokens (both the Co-founder and the Investor) implies the full acceptance above.
